Calls for nominations to the Steering Committee - 2024

The BLCS is now seeking nominations onto the steering committee. Those elected will serve for just under three years from the date of the election until the Annual Meeting in March/April 2027. The following three Member positions are now available:

- 1 student member.
- 1 early career member (including post-doctoral researchers and academics within three years since their first appointment).
- 1 ordinary member.

Both nominees and nominators (proposer & seconder) must be members of the Society and the permission of the nominee must be obtained. Nominations should be made by email to the society chair (Dr Rebecca Walker, rebecca.walker@abdn.ac.uk) and secretary (Dr Alf Martinez-Felipe, a.martinez-felipe@abdn.ac.uk). The Nomination form can be found on the last page of this letter.

The timeline for the election process is as follows:

- 30th May - Nominations open.
- 19th June - Nominations close.
- 20th June - Members will be told of the nominees for each post and online voting begins.
- 8th July - Voting ends.
- 12th July- Announcement of successful nominees.

Details of the online voting, if needed, will be released in due course.

Please do consider nominating for these great opportunities. For further details of current committee members you can view the Information Pages.

Nominations by Email

The proposer should email the following information to the Secretary (a.martinez-felipe@abdn.ac.uk and) and Chair (rebecca.walker@abdn.ac.uk).
